6. Disability Discrimination Act

All exam centre staff must ensure that provision meets the requirements of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA), extended in 2005, and the Disability Equality Duty (DED), introduced in 2006.

The DDA introduced measures aimed at eliminating the discrimination often faced by disabled people. The main provisions of the Act give protection to disabled people in the areas of employment and education.

'A person has a disability for the purposes of the DDA if s/he has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on her/his ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

The centre will meet the disability provisions under the DDA (or the Equality Act 2010 once in force), by ensuring that the exams centre is accessible and improving candidate experience. This is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Equality Legislation

All exam centre staff must ensure that they meet the requirements of any equality legislation.

The centre will comply with the legislation, including making reasonable adjustments to the service that they provide to candidates in accordance with requirements defined by the legislation, awarding bodies, and JCQ. This is the responsibility of the Subject teachers and the Exams Officer.

Access arrangements

The SENCo will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam, and the date of that exam. The SENCo can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that individual candidates can be granted during the course and in the exam.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the SENCo and Educational psychologist/Specialist teacher. The SENCo will ensure that the Specialist Assessor is appropriately qualified in accordance with JCQ regulations and hold details of these qualifications on file within the college.

Ensuring there is appropriate evidence for a candidate's access arrangement is the responsibility of the SENCo.

Making access arrangements for candidates to take exams is the responsibility of both the SENCo and Exams Officer.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Exams Officer with the SENCo.

7. Estimated grades

Heads of Subject are responsible for submitting estimated grades to the exams office when requested by the Exams Officer. These are currently not required by Exam Boards.

8. Managing invigilators

External staff will be used to invigilate examinations. These invigilators will be used for some internal exams and all external exams.

Recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Securing the necessary Disclosure Barring Service (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the Centre administration.

DBS fees for securing such clearance are paid by the centre.

Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the Centre administration.

Invigilators are recruited, timetabled, trained, and briefed by the Exams Officer.

Malpractice

The head of centre in consultation with the Exams Officer is responsible for investigating suspected malpractice.

Exam days

The Exams Officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.

Premises staff are responsible for setting up the allocated rooms, and will be advised of requirements well in advance.

Senior members of centre staff, such as an Assistant Headteacher, approved by the head of centre may be present at the start of the examination(s) for example to identify and settle candidates and instil discipline. No other members of staff may be present at the start of an exam or enter the room during the exam or have access to the exam question paper unless this is specifically requested by the Exams Officer eg because a possible printing error has been identified and, in the absence of an erratum notice, the Exams Officer needs this to be verified by the relevant subject teacher before reporting the issue to the awarding body.

Support and encouragement may be offered at any point up until the time that candidates enter the exam room. From that moment onwards they are under exam conditions and the strict protocols must be adhered to.

The invigilators will start and finish all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

In practical exams, subject teachers' availability will be in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department in accordance with JCQ's recommendations and no later than 24 hours after candidates have completed them.

After an exam, the Exams Officer will arrange for the safe dispatch of completed examination scripts to awarding bodies, working in conjunction with the Receptionist.

9. Candidates

The Exams Officer will provide written information to candidates in advance of each exam series. A formal briefing session for candidates will be given by the Vice Principal or Head of Centre.

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress and behaviour apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

A seating plan will be created for each exam and room. Students must sit in the seat allocated to them for that exam. Their exam ID card will be placed on the desk in front of them. Invigilators must verify the identity of each candidate.

In an exam room candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Candidates are expected to stay for the full exam time at the discretion of the Exams Officer or Senior Invigilator. Note: candidates who leave an exam room must be accompanied by an appropriate member of staff at all times.

The Exams Officer is responsible for handling late or absent candidates on exam day.

Clash candidates

The Exams Officer will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight security where necessary.

Special consideration

Should a candidate be unable to attend an exam because of illness, bereavement or other trauma, or be otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre's Exams Officer, or the exam invigilator to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within three days of the exam, for example by providing a letter from the candidate's doctor.

The Exams Officer will make a special consideration application to the relevant awarding body within 7 days of the exam.

10. Internal assessments and appeals against internal assessments

It is the duty of Subject Leaders to ensure that all internal assessment is ready for despatch at the correct time. The Exams Officer will assist by keeping a record of each despatch, including the recipient details and the date and sent.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the exams office by the Heads of Subject.

The process for managing appeals against internal assessments is detailed in a separate appeals policy, Appendix A.

11. Results, enquiries about results (EARs) & access to scripts (ATS)

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days,

- in person at the centre
- by post to their home address (first class)

The results slip will be in the form of a centre produced document.

Arrangements for the centre to be open on results days are made by the Exams Officer and Premises Staff.

EARs

EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. The candidates consent is required before any EAR is requested.

If a result is queried, the Exams Officer, teaching staff and Head of Centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a re-mark at the centre's expense.

When the centre does not support a candidate's or parent's request for an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged.

All processing of EARs will be the responsibility of the Exams Office, following the JCQ guidance.

ATS

After the release of results, candidates may ask the Exams Officer to request the return of one or more of their exam papers. They must complete and sign a form giving permission for this and pay the relevant fee before the Exam Board deadline.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

GCSE re-marks cannot be applied for once a script has been returned.

12. Certificates

Candidates will receive their certificates

- GCSE candidates receive their certificates at a Celebration Evening in November
- GCE candidates can collect and sign for theirs after they have been advised in writing that they are ready for collection, towards the end of the Autumn half term.

Certificates can be collected on behalf of a candidate by third parties, provided they have written authority from the candidate to do so, and bring suitable identification with them that confirms who they are.

The centre retains certificates for 3 years.

A new certificate will not be issued by an awarding organisation. A transcript of results may be issued if a candidate agrees to pay the costs incurred. Candidates are responsible for contacting the relevant awarding body to obtain this.
