Dear Parents/Carers

While the normal business of lessons and regular activities flows steadily on like a river, there have been several very positive “splashes” in the last few days.

Year 7 Parents Evening

Thank you to parents of Year 7 students for a very positive evening; clearly, in a year group of 156 it would be remarkable if every single student and parent was completely happy, but the vast majority seemed to be. The feedback from the exit questionnaires was very good. All categories had a 90%+ satisfaction score (ie “agree” or “strongly agree”); 100% of parents responded that their child was looked after well and taught well; all but one respondent considered their child safe, and all but one that their child is making good progress. 80% of students were represented, which is a positive figure in itself; it has been well-researched – although blindingly obvious – that a strong home-school partnership is a huge factor in student success.

Ten Tors

Congratulations to all of our students who completed Ten Tors last weekend, both with our teams or with other organisations. It always amazes me how the students underplay their achievement; they’ve hiked 35 or 45 miles in under 36 hours, on Dartmoor, camped overnight, navigated themselves, and when congratulated in person say things like, “Yeah, it was all right. My feet got a bit wet though.”. One of our 45-mile team, an ex-student, was medi-vacced from the moor, with the rest of the team doing all the right things and observing the safety requirements (the student was discharged from hospital later the same day).

A bit like the stage crew at a production, there is a group of unsung heroes who support Ten Tors and without whom it would be impossible. The lynchpin is Mr Eales, who coordinates the entries, training, and spends Ten Tors weekend on site at Okehampton. For much of this, he is supported by Graeme Robb, ex-Governor. For training events a number of colleagues support walks; and special mention to Governor Simon Sanger-Anderson for his continued support. Former students and Ten Tors “veterans” James Royle, Alex Sanger-Anderson, Josie Robb and Amalia Gimbuta all helped the teams in camp, as did current student Harry Price (fortunately, Exeter Chiefs were playing away...). Cip Gimbuta arrived late on Friday to cook the all-important Saturday breakfast. What is truly fantastic about this is the involvement of present and former staff, students and parents in a common endeavour. We are very fortunate, and very grateful.

Year 11 GCSE Drama Assessed Rehearsal

In terms of sheer enjoyment, this was the best set of pieces I have seen for many years, possibly ever. There were three compelling extracts from Berkoff’s Metamorphosis, using a range of different techniques to portray the disturbing narrative, and then a couple of highly entertaining pieces in very different ways. The adventures of Clive the Caterpillar and his friends in the wood were genuinely hilarious. I quite understand why the audience for these presentations usually includes just immediate family and one or two friends, but they deserve wider appreciation. The performances are only part of the final GCSE grade, of course, but in my opinion students who cause me a satisfied grin thirty minutes after an event’s finished deserve to do well!

NCOP “Next Steps” Articulatory Project

Another group of students who gladdened my heart were the thirteen Year 9s who took part in this project. They had an intensive week out of lessons, based in the same room, with the same team of trainers from a consortium of local universities. The students were put through a series of speaking, presentation and memorising skills to improve their confidence in public speaking and speaking in formal situations and to camera; naturally, this leads to greater self-confidence, too. Like many projects at the moment, this one is targeted; in this case, focusing on students from postcode areas with low university take-up, but who have the academic potential to access higher education. They gladdened my heart because the trainers were effusive in their praise; apparently in some schools the team are relieved to leave at the end of the week, but our students have been so enthusiastic, engaged and appreciative that they'd like to come back! (They added that they cannot recall one single incident all week when a student needed even the smallest rebuke.)

Rick Broadbent Literacy Day

On a similar theme, author Rick Broadbent ran a literacy day for targeted Year 7 students on sports journalism and writing. The day was coordinated by Mr Simpson and Mrs Foulds. The students really enjoyed the day, especially some of our rough diamonds (if such a thing is possible in Year 7) who blossomed in those conditions. The highlight of the day was taking penalties and commentating into a microphone, then hearing back the commentaries. Overall, a very beneficial experience.

PTFA, 17th May

You'll see elsewhere in this Newsletter that the PTFA meet next Wednesday. We have established a pattern that these meetings combine business, and a presentation/talk on a topical College matter. This time, Nicola Bennett will be talking about Careers provision in the College, both in terms of careers education and careers advice and guidance. This is a very topical issue: the rise of apprenticeships and changes to vocational courses mean that students have many more routes open to them than even ten years ago; further, Ofsted are currently paying more attention to what schools are providing by way of careers input. For our students, of course, our Sixth Form is another possible route. So, please come along!

Exam Season

The first formal exams start on Monday, so on behalf of my colleagues I wish our students good luck and every success. I also wish their families and parents/carers the same: put that exam timetable on the fridge, keep the same fridge well-stocked with snacks, and try to hit that impossible fine line between showing an interest and nagging! I repeat the consistent message that if you have any concerns at all, please contact us.

Seasonal Behaviour

I have asked my colleagues to remind students frequently about their behaviour around the site, especially at lesson changeover and at lunchtime. This is doubly important for the next few weeks with exams on, mostly in the Hall and Additional Support areas around the old playground; there will be “Quiet Please” signs up, staff presence, but if a student bursts through the Giraffe House external doors with a big shout, it is not fair on candidates. Every year I find myself writing the same thing: in the early part of the summer term some students take to running not walking, shouting not talking, and too much physicality. The physicality is mostly (but not exclusively) boys, and Years 7-9. The good news is that the rough play is confined to within friendship groups, so is rarely bullying, and rarely involves any student who sensibly keeps out of it. That said, it needs to stop, and any reinforcement of this message at home is greatly appreciated.

Woodlands Trip: 19 July 2017

The end of term trip to Woodlands will take place on Wed 19 July. The trip is open to Years 7 and 9 and to Year 8 students who are not involved in the Bude Residential. The cost of the trip is £18.00. We will leave Clyst Vale at 9.05am and return by 3.15pm. Clyst Vale uniform does not need to be worn, but practical clothing is essential. Students should bring spare clothing if they wish to go on the water rides. Please ensure your child has a hat and sun cream or wet weather clothing, depending on the forecast for the day. If you would like your child to take part, please make payment by Mon 5 June 2017, as detailed below:

Payment can be made online through the School Gateway online payment system – www.schoolgateway.com (<http://www.schoolgateway.com>). This can be accessed via the Clyst Vale website at <http://www.clystvale.org/parents/online-payment>.

Year 11 Prom

The final arrangements are being made for the Year 11.

This event is being held at Reed Hall, University of Exeter on Thursday 29th June 2017. Tickets are £28.50 and are available to purchase on-line until 26th May. The price will include a mocktail on arrival, a food and sweet buffet, disco, photo booth and an individual 9 x 6 portrait (portraits will be available to collect from school on GCSE Exam Results day).

We anticipate that students will start arriving from 6.30pm and that most students will have arrived by 8.00pm. The evening will finish at 11.00pm and you will need to make arrangements to collect your son/daughter from the venue.

I am sure the students are looking forward to the prom and will have a wonderful evening.

Ten Tors 2017

Last weekend, 5-7 May 2017, saw the annual Ten Tors challenge take place across the tors and hills of Dartmoor. We had three school teams this year, two 35-mile teams and one 45-mile team, and every single student did fantastically well over the weekend. We're full of pride and admiration for them all as I'm sure you are too.

Here's a piece from Owen, one of the students who participated:

"Our school had three teams complete the Ten Tors Challenge this year. Two teams did the 35 mile route, one made up of all Year 10's finished at 10:47 on the Sunday morning, and the other consisting of Years 9 and 10 finished at 14:10 on Sunday afternoon. Furthermore both these teams managed to finish the challenge without anybody having to drop out. Also we had a team that walked an impressive 45 miles, getting in at a very respectable time of 13:00.

All the students taking part in this event have been training since November last year. It takes a lot of persistence and organisation to complete a task like this. Students have learned a wide variety of skills such as navigation, as well as gaining new meaningful experiences. Ten Tors is a very tough yet rewarding personal challenge, and I would recommend it to anyone considering undertaking it in 2018.

It's not all about the students though, Chris Eales along with a few other members of staff and volunteers gave much of their time and effort into making Ten Tors a possibility for students at Clyst Vale. So I would like to end by saying a huge thank you on behalf of the students !"

So in no particular order, very well done to Jack, Owen, Alice, Grace, Leon, Ollie, Coby, Callan, Mattie, Pete, Sam, Robert, Alex, Harriet, Finn, George, George and Jonny

Big congratulations as well to all the other Clyst Vale students, both past and present, who also participated in the event with other organisations, especially Ben and James who did the training walks with us, but unfortunately we didn't have space on the school teams for Ed, James and a few others we saw over the weekend.

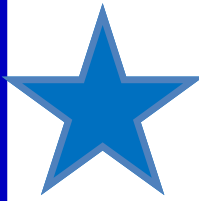

Like Owen says, the whole Ten Tors is very much a team effort. From the many volunteers who help supervise the students on all the training weekends, with the early starts and late finishes to ensure their safety, to all the parents and especially those who helped us set up our base at Okehampton Army camp on the Thursday ready for the students on the Friday. To our Year 11 & 13 student helpers, and to some ex-students who returned to help and who took on the role of deputy team managers, with responsibility for a team to see them through the mandatory scrutineering, safety briefing, and route planning – as well as including a degree of friendly competition between the teams. So to everyone, a huge, much appreciated thank you.

For those whose interest has been sparked, it's likely to start all over again soon so look out for posters and information for students in Year 9 and above!

If a student is improperly dressed, correct uniform will be provided for that day or the student may be sent home to change his/her clothing, at the discretion of the Principal.

If parents are in any doubt about the suitability of an item of uniform they should check with the College before buying it.

- Skirts should be plain black, and may be worn just above the knee. Skirts must be A-line or straight, but not stretchy or "skater" style.
- Knee length black tailored shorts may be worn in the summer.

All uniform can be purchased from Thomas Moore, Exeter. Thomas Moore offers both a personal service in their shop and also the opportunity to order on line at www.thomasmooretoymaster.co.uk.
