To: Parents/Carers of Year 9 Students

Dear Parent/Carer

OPTIONS PROCESS

The next few months are an important time for our Year 9 students. They are making the transition into Key Stage 4 and have to start considering the choice of pathways they may take in the future. Making informed decisions is even more critical as all young people are now required to stay in education, training or employment with training until they are 18.

I am writing to tell you of some important changes, and to remind you of some of the key events coming up that we have planned to help your child through the Year 9 options process. All these events have been advertised through Newsletters over the past months, but you may find it useful to have them all in one place.

EBacc

In the light of national trends towards the English Baccalaureate (EBacc), we have reviewed the curriculum we provide to our more able students and have changed our approach to choice of curriculum pathways.

From last September (2017), our most able linguists have been required to be on the EBacc pathway. This ensures that they study the full suite of subjects that the Government refers to as the EBacc, including Maths, English, Sciences, a Humanity and a Modern Foreign Language.

We have made this decision as we believe that it would be beneficial for these students to gain the EBacc suite of GCSEs. We are concerned that if we do not require this we will be doing a disservice to these students, who will be competing with other like students both locally and nationally, who will have the EBacc. We also believe that this group of students is quite capable of achieving high grades in French and Spanish, and that it is a valuable qualification to have for future applications to higher education. The Department for Education is currently pushing for 75% of students to take a Modern Foreign Language – we believe that approximately 50% is the appropriate proportion for our students. We are also aware that there may be students who are not in the top half of the year group linguistically who may like to study a language. We will welcome applications from those students, but only if we feel that it is an appropriate curriculum, enabling them to obtain the best possible grades.

Our most able linguists will therefore be on the EBacc pathway. Students and parents/carers will be informed over the next week if this applies to them.
