This week's focus

Last week we started talking about the protests taking place all over the world to support #blacklivesmatter and to protest against the killing of George Floyd and many others. This week we are going to look at this issue even further.

In case you still don't believe protests work, we've:

- Increased Derek Chauvin's murder charge
- Had the other 3 officers charged
- Reopened Breonna Taylor's case
- Reinvested $100 Million into communities of color in LA

All in one week. Don't ever say protesting is useless.

BLACK LIVES MATTER

This week we are looking at:

Article 2: Your right to non-discrimination

Article 17: Your right to access information

"If my wife comes to me in obvious pain and asks "Do you love me?", an answer of "I love everyone" would be truthful, but also hurtful and cruel in the moment. If a co-worker comes to me upset and says "My father just died," a response of "Everyone's parents die," would be truthful, but hurtful and cruel in the moment. So when a friend speaks up in a time of obvious pain and hurt and says "Black lives matter," a response of "All lives matter," is truthful. But it's hurtful and cruel in the moment". ~ Doug Williford 💜

What does systemic racism mean?

All unarmed. All killed
by police in America.

Breonna Taylor, a 26-year-old emergency medical technician (EMT), was shot eight times when officers entered her apartment in Louisville on 13 March.

They were executing a search warrant as part of a drugs investigation, but no drugs were found in the property.

The lawsuit accuses the officers of wrongful death and excessive force.

It was filed by Ms Taylor's family last month and says the officers were not looking for her or her partner - but for an unrelated suspect who was already in custody and did not live in the apartment complex.

Louisville police said they returned fire after one officer was shot and wounded in the incident.

Stop being ignorant about #WhitePrivilege

It does NOT mean you're racist.
It does NOT mean your life has been easy.

It does NOT mean you don't face struggles too.

It means your life isnt made harder by your skin colour.

THATS. IT.

HAVE SOME EMPATHY.

DONT MAKE IT ABOUT YOU.
