

Sociology

Bridging the Gap Year 11 – Year 12

---

All of the following websites and books make a great starting point for preparing yourself for A-Level Sociology.

Useful Websites:

- Sociology guide
- Student room
- Podology
- Guardian
- Telegraph
- Independent
- British Sociological association (BSA)

Textbooks

- OCR Sociology 1&2 Hodder Education
- Sociology, Themes and perspectives Ed 8. - Haralambos & Holborn
- Sociology 8th Edition – A Giddens
- OCR Sociology student guides

Subject specific websites

revisesociology.com

www.sociologyonline.co.uk

www.sociologyguide.com

Wider preparation reading

- Gang Leader for a Day
- Selfies – How the West became Obsessed
- Making a Murderer
- Chave-Jones – The Establishment
- Why I am not a feminist
- The McDonaldisation of Society
- The Spirit Level

- Criminology: The Basics
- Living Dolls
- The Fall of Public Man
- Modern Social Theory: An Introduction
- Criminology: The Essentials
- Media Studies
- A Beginner's Guide to Social Theory
- Teach Yourself Postmodernism
- Sociology: Issues and Debates
- On Liberty
- The Shock Doctrine. London: Penguin (reprint edition). Just Read It!
- 23 Things They Don't Tell You About Capitalism. Penguin Group
- The equality illusion : The truth about men and women today. London: Faber and Faber.
- Invisible Women
- Education
- The Bottom Billion – Oxford: Oxford University Press.
- Hegemony or Survival: America's quest for global dominance.
- Early Retirement Extreme

Ms Brotherton

(A-Level Sociology Teacher)

brothertonz@clystvale.org