DON'T GIVE UP.
GREAT THINGS
TAKE TIME.

End of the first week of home schooling

So it's been a strange week for most of us.

It's definitely taken some time to get used to working from home and I am sure you have all had some teething problems but hopefully by now you are getting into a bit of a routine.

You will all have been getting emails from your teachers and tutors and we hope you understand that we are all working tirelessly to ensure you access your right to an education (Article 28).

We have been so impressed with the commitment and dedication from so many of you.

Well done CVCC students.

This week

Today we will focus on your right to information
(Article 17)

Some of you will have watched so much news this week and it's all been a little scary.

Some of you will have decided to ignore the news and just try to get on with as much as you can.

So today we will only be focusing on good news surrounding this pandemic.

Good news stories

Dear prime Minister,
I want to let you know it is my birthday today but I am staying at home
because you asked us to.
I think mummy and daddy
might have ~~to~~ cancel my party but I don't mind
because I want ~~to~~ everybody to be OK.

please keep working hard to keep us all well

are you remembering to wash
your hands?

lots of love

THE PRIME MINISTER

Dear Josephine,
Happy birthday! I am glad to hear you are staying at home, though I am sorry to hear about your party. We have all got to do our bit to protect the NHS and save lives,
and that is exactly what you are doing, so well done! You are setting a great example.
We are working round the clock to keep people safe, and if we work together we can send coronavirus packing. And once we have done that you can DEFINITELY have a party with your friends!
In answer to your question - I'm regularly washing my hands with soap and water for 20 seconds: the time it takes to sing Happy Birthday twice!

With love
William

There is so much to be thankful and happy for. Find the positives.
